OPPORTUNITIES

Between 4-8th July, Speakers for Schools are presenting online Discovery Workshops for young people to hear from new and out of the ordinary creative career opportunities. Each day, young people will hear from employers such as Regatta, Benefit Cosmetics and speakers from different roles, to find out about the interesting work that they do. On 8th July, as part of the festival, Richard Waterworth, General Manager of TikTok EU, will be giving a broadcast about why creativity matters, and students will have the chance to ask questions. If you are interested in taking part, please register here.

The Changing Education Group have placement opportunities in 129,917 organisations of all shapes and sizes across 50 industries, ready to welcome back students on Work Experience. You can find out more here.

There is still time to register for a Springpod summer work experience placement. Use your weeks off wisely to help you plan and get ready for your future. You'll learn new skills and more about specific industries that will help you to make informed choices. Read more and apply here.

We use that term "informed choice" a lot - what does it actually mean? Basically, we are saying that you need to research all your options rather than just picking the easiest one! Knowing all your options, researching them and then deciding = making an informed choice.

Create your Not Going to Uni account today, making your profile allows you to set up alerts for apprenticeship vacancies, see what employers are looking at your CV and explore what case studies, provider profiles and advice blogs. Register here.
