Dear Parents/Carers,

You may be aware from media coverage that the NEU teaching union have declared strike action, which will take place on the following dates;

Wednesday 1st of February, Tuesday the 28th of February, Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th of March.

The strike is happening because of a national dispute between the union and the government over teachers' pay, concerns about funding of schools and the subsequent difficulties this causes for recruitment.

I'm getting in touch to give you as much notice as possible that learning may be disrupted on these days. We are considering several options, including partial opening, setting some lessons online and closing the school. I will write to you as soon as possible this week to confirm how we intend to proceed. However, we recommend that you start to make alternative childcare arrangements for these dates.

I'm sorry about the potential disruption to you and to your child's education. I understand that this situation may be frustrating, and ask that all members of our school community continue to treat each other with respect. Hawley Hall High School and the Rowan Learning Trust remains committed to providing a safe and secure environment for our pupils and delivering high-quality teaching.

We are working closely with our staff union representatives to keep up to date with the situation, and I will inform you of the final arrangements via Weduc as soon as possible. If you have any questions, please contact the school.

Kind regards,

M Klinck
