June 2025

Dear Parent/Carer,

Your child has successfully completed the majority of their GCSE/Vocational examinations, and we are incredibly proud of their efforts, motivation, perseverance and resilience, during this rigorous period of their life so far.

Your child will be allowed to go on study leave from Wednesday 11th June after the GCSE mathematics exam at 11.00am.

Your child will be expected to attend all the intervention sessions pertinent to their remaining examinations on the day and to arrive at school at 8.00am onwards for breakfast intervention sessions on the day of examinations. If your child has an examination in the afternoon, then please refer to the timings of this subject's intervention session. To summarise the information please see the table below.

For morning examinations, students will be registered during engagement period as normal. When your child leaves site they must sign out at main reception. If your child wishes to stay in school, then there will be a room available where they can study supervised. For afternoon examinations your child must sign in at reception.
